	5-1-2004 None appears for the petitioner. Shri R.S. Jaiswal with Shri P.R. Patankar, A-dvocates for the respondents. Heard. This petition has been filed by petitioner-Grade III employee of S.E.C.L. who has been transferred to Singhali Project by an office order and has been directed to report there as per Annexure P-6. The petitioner did not join and filed this petition. In this petition there is no stay order. Counsel for the respondents submitted that most probably, the petitioner has joined the place of posting. Having considered the facts and circumstances and material on record and since the transfer is an exigency of service, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the petitioner that if the grievance still subsists, he may submit a a representation before the competent authority. If such a representation is filed, the same shall be considered and decided by the authority concerned as early as possible on its own merit in accordance with law. The petition is accordingly disposed of at this stage. Sd/- Fakhruddin Judge
